Article 4
Purposes

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; and to do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the stated purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, association, trusts, institution, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth below. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The specific purposes for which this Corporation is organized are as follows:

1. To inspire, encourage and promote Radiant Peace, which is natural, whole, harmless, benevolent energy within all our hearts relating us all and making us whole. Radiant Peace is not dualistic in nature, as in cycles of war and peace. Radiant Peace transcends the limits of race, age, gender, politics and religion. Radiant Peace is within us all and is available to everyone;
2. To contribute to increasing the knowledge and understanding of Radiant Peace, as it recognizes the dignity and worth of all human beings, of all animals and of all living things, and to promote right human relations and peaceful co-existence among all peoples and all living things on earth in Radiant Peace;
3. To support increased understanding of Radiant Peace, honoring the peaceful interconnectedness of all life, and the essential oneness of all life;
4. To develop through education, research and distribution of materials widespread understanding of Radiant Peace which is naturally nurturing, beneficial and benevolent to all peoples and aligned with the basic human right to achieve wholeness, balance, health in body, mind and spirit, integrity, intelligence, and love;
5. To promote international understanding and cooperation in responsible service for human, and all life, in mutual respect, love and harmlessness, in peaceful caretaking and in the inclusive principle of unity within our diversities, which is Radiant Peace;
6. To be a centerpoint for and to cooperate with other organizations in activities and education contributing to Radiant Peace, global stability, unity, and the continuing development of right human relations.
7. To celebrate The International Day of Radiant Peace and The International Festival of Radiant Peace each year, and to inspire, encourage and promote Radiant Peace projects worldwide.
