OF
GIFT OF A DOLLAR FOUNDATION, INC.
A FLORIDA NOT-FOR-PROFIT CORPORATION

FILED

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of the corporation is Gift of a Dollar Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE II
DURATION

The term of existence of the Corporation is perpetual, and the corporate existence will commence on the filing of these Articles by the Department of State.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the following purposes: religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, as specified in Subsection 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Specifically, the purpose of the Corporation is to match charitable donations with causes that produce the most worldwide good using those dollars. The founding principle is that a dollar can produce an optimum effect for good somewhere. In order to produce that good, ideas for use of charitable donations will also be solicited by mail and a website that describes the Corporation's mission and purpose. The Board of Directors will use its discretion in determining which charitable ideas to support. The Corporation will also research the uses and expense ratios of other charitable organizations in an effort to determine those who wisely use their funds to produce optimum results for good throughout the world. The Corporation will publish its contribution levels and number of donors, success stories, information, ideas, and research it produces on its website and through other means.

(a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, trustee, director, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation), and no member, trustee, director, or officer of the Corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation except as otherwise provided by Internal Revenue Code Subsection 501(h), or participating in, or intervening in including the publication or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Subsection 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or (ii) by corporation contributions to which are deductible under Subsection 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(d) In the event of the liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law, all of the remaining assets and property of the Corporation shall, after necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to such organizations as shall qualify under Subsection 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(e) Any other provisions herein notwithstanding, no member, trustee, director, officer, or private individual shall engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Subsection 4941 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; nor fail to distribute an amount of income required to avoid incurring tax liability under Subsection 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of subsequent federal tax laws; nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in Subsection 4943 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; nor make any taxable expenditures as defined in Subsection 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE IV

DIRECTORS

There shall be not less than three (3) members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and not more than ten (10). Additional Directors may be added from time to time by the majority vote of Directors then serving.

The names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as Directors until the first election thereof, as appointed by the Incorporator, are as follows:

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board, and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the Directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting, and that the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of this Corporation authorize the Board to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

As such, any applicants elected to the membership of the Corporation pursuant to the Bylaws of the Corporation shall be without right or entitlement to vote on any corporate matter, whether or not such matter requires the vote of members or shareholders under Florida Statute Chapter 607. The Board of Directors may, however, delegate so much of its authority to officers of the Corporation, committees composed of members, if any, Directors, officers, or individuals, or any combination thereof, as it deems advisable to fulfill its tax exempt purposes.
