III.

The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized is (are): The corporation is organized pursuant to the Florida Nonprofit Corporation Code. This corporation is a Christian based nonprofit public benefit organization and is not organized for the private gain of any person. Its principal strategies of operation will focus on charitable, and educational programs. Its purpose is to promote and establish a full service facility, which will provide a complete continuum of care ranging from preventative to treatment and rehabilitation of children, youth, and families. The service goals are to provide in-home support and technical assistance in order to offer quality services in a less restrictive environment, and to provide support services to the court system, and state agencies. The agenda will include, but shall not be limited to: Christian Counseling and support services, Specialized Parent Education, preventative services for family violence and nonviolent juvenile offenders; educational services for deprived, disadvantaged, disabled individuals; counseling services for crime victims, drug addicted adults and teens, HIV patients, delinquent and deprived children and their families; in-home and community based services for prenatal, postnatal parents and persons with developmental disabilities; nursing services, medication administration and health education. To provide emergency day care, housing, food, clothing, and furniture for low-income families at risk of deprivation. This corporation will coordinate and function in cooperation with federal, state, county, and local agencies as well as local churches, civic organizations and private business.

IV.

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed is: The director shall be appointed and terminated by the initial incorporator(s).
