Articles of Incorporation
Of
On-Site Scholar, Inc.

The undersigned acting as incorporators of a Not For Profit Corporation under the Florida Statutes (F.S. 607 and 621) adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

Article I. The name of the corporation is On-Site Scholar, Inc.

Article II. The principal place of business is 16939 Peru Road, Umatilla, FL 32784

Article III. The purpose of the corporation is, first and foremost, to honor The Lord Jesus Christ in all of the corporation's business dealings. The corporation will engage primarily in the development, maintenance, sale and archival of geo-spatial micro-historical case studies, published material and curriculum. This includes but is not limited to owning and operating the necessary computing infrastructure to meet the stated purpose. The corporation will do everything necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of these purposes that are not forbidden by the Florida incorporation. The corporation will carry out its mission in any State, and foreign country, to the extent that these purposes are not forbidden by the law of the State, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or by any other lawful business, and may purchase, own, mortgage, sell, lease or otherwise deal with real estate and personal property, as permitted by the laws of the State of Florida.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IV. The initial Board of Directors shall consist of no more than 5 who need not be residents of Florida. They will serve until the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors or until their successors shall have been elected. Board of Director Members will serve a term of 2 years on a rotating basis. New Board Members will be voted upon by the currently seated board. A majority of votes is required to elect a Board Member. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
