and Winding up of Affairs.

The following plan of distribution of assets of NCIF, Inc. was prepared in accordance with F.S. 617.1406 for filing with the Florida Department of State and has been adopted by resolution of the board of directors of NCIF, Inc. on December 11, 2012 consistent with the articles of incorporation and the resolution to dissolve NCIF, Inc. The corporation has no members to vote on distribution of assets. The action to dissolve is taken by the remaining member of the board of directors.

The corporation has no liabilities or obligations that will not be paid or discharged by others or forgiven to the extent that they can not be paid by the corporation. The corporation pays claims and files for reimbursement with its reinsurer. The corporation will maintain cash accounts to fund the payment of claims until all outstanding claims are paid.

At this time there are 2 (two) remaining open claims. Upon satisfaction of all claims, the corporation will liquidate a capitalization loan made by Public Risk Underwriters, Inc. to the extent that it has cash, and accept pre arranged forgiveness of that debt by Public Risk Underwriters, Inc. for any unpaid balance.

No assets are available or subject to distributive rights of former trust members.
