Article Three: Purpose

This corporation is a nonprofit organization and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized in compliance with Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes for charitable purposes. The specific purpose of this foundation is to: 1. Assist in acquiring a cure for Cystic Fibrosis, also known as CF; 2. Find ways to better the life of those who suffer from the disease and their families; 3. Offer legal support through licensed attorneys to those who qualify for the assistance.

This is a corporation organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on 1. by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or 2. by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of participating or intervening in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Article Four: Manner of Election

The directors of this organization shall be appointed to their position by the president. Recommendations and nominations for the positions shall be permitted, however, the final decision lies with the president.

Article Five: Initial Directors and/or Officers

The Directors of The Allison Bine Foundation, Inc. are as follows:
