Article III – Purpose:

The purpose for which the Corporation is formed is exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). (This reference and all future references herein to any Section of the Code shall be deemed to include all regulations promulgated thereunder and any corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law and the regulations thereunder.) To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Corporation shall engage in (a) receiving and maintaining real or personal property, or both, and subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in these Articles of Incorporation, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income and the principal exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes either directly or by contributing to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and (b) any lawful act or activity incident to the foregoing and for which corporations may be formed under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

Article VIII – Activities:

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IX – Dissolution:

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, all assets remaining after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
