ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENT

The power to make, alter, amend, repeal or adopt the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of this Corporation shall be proposed by the Board of Directors of this Corporation and require the approval of a majority of the Members of the Sole Member.

ARTICLE X
DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation to the Sole Member, if still in existence and qualifying as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or if not still in existence and qualifying as tax exempt, then to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes and which are, at the time qualified as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine to be best calculated to carry out the objects and purposes of the Corporation. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the appropriate Court of the jurisdiction in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated for such purpose.

ARTICLE XI
MISCELLANEOUS

No Officer or Director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for or arising out of a breach of fiduciary duty as an Officer or Director notwithstanding any provision of law imposing such liability; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit the liability of an Officer or Director to the extent that such liability is imposed by applicable law (i) for a breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its members, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the Officer or Director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Corporation may, to the extent legally permissible, indemnify each person who may serve or who has served at any time as an Officer or Director of the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including, without limitation, counsel fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes, penalties and settlement payments, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding in which he or she may become involved by reason of his or her service in such capacity; provided that no indemnification shall be provided for any such person with respect to any matter as to which he or she shall have been finally adjudicated in any proceeding not have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Corporation; and further provided that any compromise or settlement payment shall be approved by the Corporation.

The indemnification provided hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of an Officer or Director entitled to indemnification hereunder. The right of indemnification under this provision shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which any person may be entitled.

This provision constitutes a contract between the Corporation and the indemnified Officers and Directors. No amendment or repeal of this provision that adversely affects the right of an indemnified Officer or Director shall apply to such Officer or Director with respect to those acts or omissions that occurred at any time prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE XII EFFECTIVE DATE

These Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation shall be effective as of the 29TH day of April 2010.

ARTICLE XIII ADOPTION OF AMENDMENT

The amendments were adopted by the members on April 29, 2010 and the number of votes cast for the amendments were sufficient for approval.
