ARTICLE III

Purposes

(a) The Corporation is organized and shall be managed and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes. As means for the accomplishment of the foregoing, it shall be within the purposes of the Corporation to establish and maintain charitable, religious, scientific and educational activities and to take any other action that, from time to time, shall be deemed expedient to the directors of the Corporation and which shall further the said purposes.

(b) It shall be within the purposes of the Corporation to receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for the active conduct of its charitable, religious, scientific or educational purposes directly rather than by or through one or more grantee organizations.

(c) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director, officer or member of the Corporation, or to any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director, officer or member of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any statute of similar import (the "Code"), or the regulations issued thereunder, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code and regulations issued thereunder.

(e) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific or educational organizations that then would qualify for the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder, and no director, officer or member of the corporation, or other private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Corporation's assets.

ARTICLE IV

Powers

(a) The Corporation shall have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any and all of the charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes for which the Corporation is organized.

(b) The Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity, that would invalidate its status:

(1) As a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or

(2) As a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, all of the Corporation's income for each of its taxable years shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as will not subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not:

(1) Engage in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code);

(2) Retain any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code);

(3) Make investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code; or

(4) Make any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code).

ARTICLE V

Term of Existence

The term for which the Corporation is to exist shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE IX

Board of Directors

(a) The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors who shall be elected as provided in the by-laws, and by officers who shall be appointed by the Board of Directors as provided in the by-laws. The officers to be appointed in such fashion shall be a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, and such other officers as may be provided for in the by-laws of the Corporation. The duties of the respective officers and the manner of filling vacancies in the offices of the Corporation shall be as provided in the by-laws.

(b) The number of directors and the manner of filling vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be provided in the by-laws of the Corporation. The number shall not be less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) members, the exact number of directors to be fixed from time to time as provided by the by-laws. Provisions for holding meetings of the directors and the transaction of business by the directors shall be as provided in the by-laws of the Corporation. Subject to the by-laws, meetings of the directors may be held within or outside of State of Florida.

ARTICLE X

Amendment of By-Laws

The by-laws of the Corporation may be made, amended in whole or in part, or repealed, and new by-laws may be adopted from time to time, by a majority vote of all the directors of the Corporation, unless otherwise provided in the Company's by-laws.

ARTICLE XI

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in whole or in part by the members of the Corporation in the manner provided in the Corporation's by-laws.

The foregoing Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation were adopted by the Board of Directors on May 11, 2021, and will become effective upon their filing with the Florida Department of State. The Corporation had no members entitled to vote on the amendments.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Corporation has caused these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to be signed by its duly authorized officer this 25th day of May, 2021.
