We have received your document for STYLE SMART CLOTHIERS, INC. and your check(s) totaling $87.50. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

Florida law requires the street address of the principal office and, if different the mailing address of the entity. A post office box is not acceptable for the principal office.

Section 617.0202(d), Florida Statutes, requires the manner in which directors are elected or appointed be contained in the articles of incorporation or a statement that the method of election of directors is as stated in the bylaws.

The document must contain written acceptance by the registered agent, (i.e. "I hereby am familiar with and accept the duties and responsibilities as Registered Agent.")

The registered agent must sign accepting the designation.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6870.

TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF Style Smart Clothiers, Inc.

The undersigned, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act of the State of Florida, adopt the following articles of incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation, hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation," is Style Smart Clothiers, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

Purposes: The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code:

The Corporation may receive and administer funds for scientific, religious, educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and, to that end, the Corporation is empowered to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such manner as, in the judgment of the directors, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act.

Specifically, the Corporation exists to glorify God and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ by obtaining, storing, selling and/or distributing clothing and accessories for the purpose of making distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which provide for the treatment of the victims of sexual abuse and/or sexual mutilation, and such organizations which are so qualified and which provide education and or prevention programs that strive to reduce the incidence of sexual abuse and/or sexual mutilation.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and no member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publication or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to Prince of Peace Anglican Church, Inc., a Florida not for profit corporation, or if that entity does not exist or is otherwise an ineligible recipient under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, then to one or more charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court having jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV

The qualifications for members and the manner of their election shall be as stated in the by-laws of this corporation.

ARTICLE V

The initial street address in the state of Florida of the initial registered office of the Corporation is 3180 Hilliard Court, Melbourne, FL 32934, and the name of the initial registered agent at such address is Jinkie L. Echols.

The street address of the principal office and the mailing address of the corporation is 3180 Hilliard Court, Melbourne, FL 32934.

ARTICLE VI

The territory in which the operations of the Corporation are principally to be conducted is the United States of America and its territories and possessions, but the operations of the Corporation shall not be limited to such territory.

ARTICLE VII

The initial Board of Directors shall consist of at least three (3) members, who need not be residents of the state of Florida. The Board shall always consist at least three (3) members.

ARTICLE VIII

The names and addresses of the persons who shall serve as directors until their successors shall have
