Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future tax code) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.) and;

(1) To proclaim the good news of salvation by faith in our Lord Jesus Christ by any suitable method or media, which includes but is not limited to the following:

- a) Establishing and operating a local church for the worship of Jesus Christ, using personal evangelism, television and radio for crusades, conventions, preaching, teaching, missions and other Christian purposes;
- b) Assisting and furthering the task of spreading God's Word through the use of Biblical Scripture and other printed material; and by providing speakers and other instructional and educational programs which may be deemed necessary or convenient in effecting the above purposes;
- c) Establishing of new programs of outreach and ministry, and the strengthening of existing programs and organizations which have a similar purpose and dedication to presenting Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord;

(2) To be obedient to our Lord Jesus Christ's command to "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

(3) To serve as an instrument through which men may be witnesses unto our Lord Jesus Christ in Jerusalem, and unto all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

(4) To do only that which glorifies the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

(5) To engage in spiritual work and services based upon the authority of the Holy Bible.

(6) To solicit, collect, receive, acquire, hold and invest money and property, both real and personal, including money and property received by gift, contribution, bequest, or device; to sell and convert property, both real and personal, into cash; and to use the funds of this corporation and the proceeds, income, rents, issues, and profits derived from any property of this corporation for any of the purposes for which this corporation is formed.

(7) To purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, assign, transfer, dispose of mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or encumber, and to deal in shares, bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities or evidences on indebtedness or any person, firm, corporation, or association; and while the owner or holder of them, to exercise all rights, powers, and privileges of ownership.

(8) To purchase or acquire, own, hold, use, lease (either as lessor or lessee), sell, exchange, assign, convey, dispose of, mortgage, hypothecate, or encumber real and personal property.

(9) To enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose without limit on amount, with any person, firm, association or corporation, municipality, county, parish, state, territory, government or other municipal or governmental subdivision.

(10) To borrow money, incur indebtedness, and to secure repayment by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other hypothecation of property, both real and personal.

(11) To do all things necessary, expedient, or appropriate to the accomplishment of any of the objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed.

(12) Upon the dissolution of this corporation assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

ARTICLE IV DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number, Term, and Election of Directors

The Board of Directors shall consist of no less than three (3) nor more than nine (9) directors, maintaining compliance with IRS Code Section 501 (c) (3).

The organizer of this corporation shall first appoint the Board of Directors, and thereafter the preceding Board of Directors at their annual meeting shall vote upon each director for election. Each Director shall serve a term of one (1) year. A Director may succeed himself upon expiration of his/her term by authorization of the Board. Each Director, including a Director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected.

Section 2. Powers

(1) General Corporate Powers The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

(2) Specific Powers Without prejudice to these general powers, the directors shall have the power to:

- a) Select and remove all officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe any powers and duties for them that are consistent with law, with the articles of incorporation, and with the bylaws, and to fix their compensation.
- b) Change the principal executive office or the principal business office in the State of Florida from one location to another; and cause the corporation to be qualified to do business in any other state, territory, dependency, or country and conduct business within or outside the State of Florida.
- c) Adopt, make, and use a corporate seal and alter the form of the seal.
- d) Borrow money and incur indebtedness on behalf of the corporation and cause to be executed and delivered for the corporation's purposes, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, and other evidence of debt and service.
- e) Inspect, modify and approve a yearly budget for the corporation. Periodically review budget compliance and projections.

Section 3. Vacancies

(1) Events Causing Vacancies A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of the following: (i) the death, resignation, or removal of any director, (ii) or the increase in any authorized number of directors.

(2) Resignations Except as provided in this paragraph, any director may resign, which resignation shall be effective on giving written notice to the chairman of the board, the president, the secretary or the board of directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the resignation to become effective. If the resignation of a director is effective at a future time, the board of directors may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective. No director may resign when the corporation would be left without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs.

(3) Vacancies Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the remaining directors of the board, though less than a quorum.

Section 4 Salaries, Wages and Other Compensation

(1) The majority of the Board of Directors will not receive a salary in their capacity as directors. All compensation decisions will be made by the Board of Directors.

(2) Any salaries, wages, fringe benefits or other forms of compensation (housing, transportation and other allowances) paid to or provided to the organization's employees, directors, or officers will not exceed a value which is reasonable and commensurate with the duties and working hours associated with such employment and with the compensation ordinarily paid to persons with similar positions or duties.

Section 5 Budget Oversight

The Board of Directors will inspect, modify and approve a yearly budget for the corporation. At ensuing Board of Director's meetings, the Board will review projections against budget.
