Document # N08000001494

This letter is to inform you that effective immediately I resign as Treasurer of this corporation and want my name, address, as well as, any personal information removed from the Articles of Incorporation or any document related with this corporation. Even though in a verbal conversation with Mrs. Ruth Rosado before the corporation was created I agreed to be part of the corporation. Approximately at the end of April or beginning of May 2008 I notified her that due to personal reasons I did not want to be part of the corporation any more. More importantly I have never sign any document related to this corporation and as you can see in the attach copy of a letter that was requested from me at Bank of America when she opened an account for the corporation. I have never be a signer on the bank account, I am not responsible for the maintenance of the financial books, I definitively do not know the cash flow related to this corporation, and obviously I will not be responsible for the Annual Filing Report. I have spoken with Mrs. Rosado in several occasions inquiring whether or not she have initiated the process of my resignation but since I have not received a clear response, I have decided to send this form myself. Thank you for your time and please feel free to contact me if you have any further question.

Sincerely,

Doris X. Marquez
