Director, officer, committee member, employee or agent of the Association, but only if and to the extent he or she acted in good faith and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she reasonably believed his or her conduct was lawful. This obligation includes, without limitation, payment of all judgments, fines, penalties, interest, settlement payments and expenses (including without limitation the reasonable fees and disbursements of attorneys, paralegals, experts and consultants in preparation for and during all pretrial, trial, retrial, appellate and post-judgment proceedings) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding.

Section 2. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Association.

Section 4. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the Association from time to time as incurred rather than only after the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding. Section 5. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the Association's Directors or officers may be entitled under the Declarations, the Association's By-Laws, agreement, vote of members or disinterested Directors, or otherwise, both as to actions in their official capabilities and as to action in another capacity while holding such offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, committee member, agent or employee and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 6. The Association shall have the power, but shall not be obligated, to purchase and maintain indemnification insurance to provide coverage for any liability asserted against any Director or officer of the Association in any of his or her capacities as described in Section 1, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him or her under this Article.

Section 7. Any person requesting indemnification shall first look to any insurance maintained by the Association for indemnification against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement (as described above). The Association shall be obligated to indemnify such person (if entitled to indemnification by the Association) only to the extent such insurance does not indemnify such person. In the event that any expenses, judgments, fines, or amounts paid in settlement are paid pursuant to insurance maintained by such Association, the Association shall have no obligation to reimburse the insurance company.

If there are conflicts between the provisions of Florida law, the Condominium Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws, the provisions of Florida law, the Condominium Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws (in that order) shall prevail.
