ARTICLE III – DURATION

The corporation will exist perpetually.

ARTICLE IV – PURPOSE

The corporation is organized as a corporation not for profit, exclusively for charitable, religious, educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, including but not limited to the following: to establish and maintain an independent Christian church, to support and send forth missionaries that the Corporation deems worthy of support, and to provide a place of public worship, and to establish, maintain, and conduct schools, mission churches, mission stations, and other religious educational and charitable work to that end. Further, the corporation may engage in other activities designed or intended to accomplish such purposes. To these ends, the corporation may do and engage in any and all lawful activities that may be incidental or reasonably necessary to any of these purposes, and it shall have and may exercise all other powers and authority now or hereafter conferred upon corporations not for profit in the State of Florida.

The specific purposes for which this corporation is organized are to operate exclusively for religious, charitable, educational and distinct ecclesiastical purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, or any superseding statute thereto, and such purposes shall include the following:

- a) To organize and assemble people of the Christian faith for the purposes of propagating the precepts of the Christian religion, customs, and principles.
- b) To conduct a local church by the direction of the Lord Jesus Christ and under the leadership of the Holy Spirit in accordance with all the Commandments and provisions as set forth in the Holy Bible, the irrevocable Word of God.

- c) Pursuant thereto, the following activities and guidelines shall be established:
- (1) A recognized creed, code of doctrine, discipline and form of worship shall be established.
 - (2) An ecclesiastical form of government shall be established.
 - (3) Ordination of elders and deacons upon completion of the prescribed course of study, designated by this church ministry.
 - (4) A Presbytery shall be established to minister to the congregation.
 - (5) Establishment of a congregation membership based upon acceptance of a recognized creed and belief, and support of the church.
 - (6) Spread the Word of the Gospel through seminars, radio, television, establishment of church literature, and other forms of mass media for the purpose of educating the individual in the Word of God.
 - (7) Establishment of various religious services pursuant to the recognized creed, form of worship, code of doctrine and discipline of the church and the establishment of Sunday Schools and religious schools for Christians and educational instruction to the young.
 - (8) Establishment of a Bible Training School or School of Theology (not considered an accredited educational institution) for the preparation of ministers
 - (9) Minister the Word of God to the faithful, and all others.
 - (10) Promote and encourage, through the ministry of the organization, cooperation with other affiliate organizations.
 - (11) To acquire and hold such property, either real or personal, for church purposes, as may be necessary for its membership and the worship of God.
