be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Third Article hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE VI DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization(s) organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization(s) under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court with appropriate jurisdiction, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said Court shall determined, which are organized and operate exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII DIRECTORS

The number of Directors of the Corporation shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation. Except as may otherwise be provided in these Articles of Incorporation, the requirements for membership on the Corporation's Board of Directors and the manner of election or appointment of the Directors of the Corporation shall be prescribed by the Bylaws of the Corporation.
