This corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV

Election of Directors

The Board of Directors shall delegate authority to the nominating committee to bring before the board the nominees proposed as candidates for a chair on the board of directors of this corporation.

If this corporation makes no provision for members, then, at the regular meeting of the board of directors held on the Monday in the month of October, at least one (1) month prior to the annual board of directors meeting held in November of each year, the nominating committee shall submit the names of the nominees to the President. These names shall be placed on the ballot for election at said annual meeting by the board of directors.

- a. At the annual meeting held in November after the adoption of the bylaws, directors shall be elected by the board of directors. Voting for the election of directors shall be by ballot of no less than three (3) directors but as many as fifteen (15) may be elected. Each director shall cast one vote per candidate, and may vote for as many candidates as the number of candidates to be elected to the board.
- b. In the interest of continuity, this corporation will hold staggered elections of its board members. Rather than replacing the entire board at each annual election, the organization will re-elect 1/3 of the board members each year to serve a three-year term.
- c. To start the staggered system out with a fifteen (15) member board, five of the initial directors receiving the most votes would serve three (3) year terms; and the five (5) other candidates receiving the second and third most votes shall hold office for two (2) year terms; and the five (5) other candidates receiving the fourth most votes shall hold office for one (1) year.
At each subsequent annual meeting, an equal number of directors equal to those whose terms have expired shall be elected for the term of three (3) years. At the expiration of any term a director may be re-elected.
- d. The installation of directors who may have been elected in any particular year shall be held on the day immediately following the date of the annual meeting at which such new members of the board of directors were elected.
