Articles of Incorporation

Of

Forerunners Generation International, Inc.

We, the undersigned, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 617.0202, F.S. of the Florida Code of Law do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation in accordance with the said statutes.

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this corporation shall be FORERUNNERS GENERATION INTERNATIONAL, INC.

ARTICLE II: ADDRESS

P.O. Box 357932, Gainesville, FL 32635-7932

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The general nature and purpose of the corporation shall be to win souls for the Kingdom of God and to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ through every means possible. We shall spread the gospel as follows: holding concerts, crusades (any social gathering), writing books and pamphlets (any literary media), starting churches, helping other churches and ministries any way possible, holding youth challenges, school involvement through assemblies, recording CD's, tapes (any music media), through television, satellite, radio, and Internet (and any technology available). The corporation intends to form networks of prayer groups, apostles, prophets, and any other network that will help promote unity in the body of Christ. The corporation desires to educate youth, in public, private and homeschoolers about topics such as drug awareness, the promotion of abstinence, anger intervention, and any other topic relevant to the youth of the day. The corporation shall open Christian schools and Christian learning institutes. The corporation intends to open, finance and employ personnel businesses of all types with the sole purpose of funneling all proceeds back into the kingdom of God. The corporation shall do any and all things necessary or expedient for carrying out the said objects and purposes of the corporation, and in general, to possess all rights, abilities and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits granted to corporations of similar character under the laws of the state of Florida; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, these purposes are limited to those described in section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or any other corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE IV: IRS 501(C)(3) TAX EXEMPTION PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. LIMITATIONS ON ACTIVITIES

No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation [except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code], and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Bylaws, this corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SECTION 2. PROHIBITION AGAINST PRIVATE INUREMENT

No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, Directors or trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of this Corporation.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

This corporation shall have perpetual existence. However, in the event of the dissolution of this corporation, all assets will be donated to a non-profit Christian organization or church of the corporation's choice, provided that the same is qualified under section 501 (C) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or any other corresponding provision of any future United states Internal revenue Code, and provided that all residual assets of the corporation will be turned over to an organization that has qualified under 170 (C) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding section of any future law of the federal, state or local government for exclusive public purpose. Upon the dissolution of the corporation consistent with the law, the remaining assets of the corporation shall be distributed to a non-profit Christian organization or church of the corporation's choice.

ARTICLE V: DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. DUTIES

It shall be the duty of the directors to:

(a) Perform any and all duties imposed on them collectively or individually by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws;

(b) Appoint and remove, employ and discharge, and, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, prescribe the duties and fix the compensation, if any, of all officers, agents and employees of the corporation;

(c) Provide general oversight over all officers, agents and employees of the corporation to assure that their duties are performed properly;

(d) Meet at such times and places as required by these Bylaws;

(e) Register their addresses with the Secretary of the Corporation, and notices of meetings mailed or telegraphed to them at such addresses shall be valid notices thereof.

SECTION 2. MANNER OF ELECTION

Every person who believes in the purposes of this corporation is qualified and eligible to be a board member for this corporation. The manner of admission to the said corporation shall be by written application and upon a favorable three-quarters vote of the membership of said corporation; the subscribers to the Articles of Incorporation and those hereinafter admitted to such membership shall constitute the membership of the said corporation. The corporation shall have three or more members and they shall be known collectively as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall not consist of less than three members. Each Director shall hold term until his or her successor is elected and qualifies, or upon resignation of the Director.
