Dear Sirs:

Enclosed with this cover letter, please find the "Articles of Incorporation" for

The Employees Club of FCI Miami, Incorporated

... and a bank check for $70.00 for the application and the designation of registered agent.

We are an employees organization made up of Federal Bureau of Prison employees from the Federal Correctional Institution in Miami. The club was organized to promote the general well-being of the members.

The club, in its present form, has been in existence for more than a year. We do not sell goods except as part of our fund-raising activities. When we have bought any products up till now, Florida sales tax is paid. Our annual gross receipts did not exceed $2500 in 2007.

We believe that we meet IRS "qualifications" as a 501(c)(7) Social Club and are seeking recognition as a Florida "not-for-profit" corporation.

After your review or if there is anything else needed to expedite this application, please contact me as soon as possible.
