persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to and make payments and distributions in furtherance of, the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by organizations which constitute "supporting organizations" under Section 509(a)(3) of the Code.

(ii) Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying, or making provision for the payment of, all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation to one or more of the Supported Organizations. The Board of Directors shall determine how the Corporation's assets will be distributed in accordance with the foregoing sentence. Any of the Corporation's assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court in the political subdivision in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes to such organization or organizations, as the foregoing court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(iii) The Corporation shall indemnify the Directors and the Corporation's officers, if any, to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of Florida now or hereafter in force, including the advance of expenses under the procedures provided by such laws; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not limit the authority of the Corporation to indemnify other employees and agents of the Corporation consistent with the laws of the State of Florida and, provided further, that indemnification shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which constitute "supporting organizations" under Section 509(a)(3) of the Code.

(iv) To the fullest extent permitted by Florida statutory or decisional law, as amended or interpreted, no Director or officer of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for money damages; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation of Director and officer liability shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which constitutes "supporting organizations" under Section 509(a)(3) of the Code. No amendment of these Articles or repeal of any of its provisions shall limit or eliminate the benefits provided to Directors and officers under this provision with respect to any act or omission which occurred prior to such amendment or repeal.

(v) The Corporation retains the right to further amend its corporate purposes so that it may embrace any activity which may properly be engaged in by any organization which constitutes a "supporting organization" under Section 509(a)(3) of the Code, and all contributions to the Corporation are made subject to this provision unless otherwise specifically stated in writing at the time of contribution.

The enumeration and definition of particular powers of the Board of Directors included in this Article VII shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other article of these Articles, or construed as or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit any powers conferred upon the Board of Directors under the laws of the State of Florida now or hereafter in force, except to the extent that the laws of the State of Florida permit activities which are not permitted under federal law for any organization which constitutes a "supporting organization" under Section 509(a)(3) of the Code.
