“Your marketing and promotional search engine for Christian entertainment and Community events that exceeds the mark”

The5000mark Inc. is a non for profit faith based community organization created to invent unique outreach programs designed to market and promote people in the local community who desires success beyond the normal expectations of society.

This organization plans to exceed the mark of success in every endeavor by developing educational and exciting outreach programs for youth and adults who suffer from HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases, depression, oppression, diabetes, insecurity and self esteem issues, dysfunctional relationships, loneliness, eating disorders, anger issues, physical-mental-verbal-sexual abuse, and more.

This company will also cater to those seeking exposure in the entertainment industry by allowing aspiring singers, musicians, comedians, artists (visual), poets, rappers, dancers, and writers to provide services of healing and comfort through their instruments during these unique and creative community events and workshops.

The proceeds from all events by the5000mark Inc. will be donated to several local and international organizations throughout the globe. The5000mark plans to join the fight along with other organizations to better the world with events that will not only inspire but, instill change and hope in our communities worldwide.
