ARTICLE XIII TAX EXEMPTION

This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall this corporation participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE IX VOTING

The presence of three (3) members shall be necessary at any meeting to constitute a quorum to transact business. The act of a majority of the membership present at a meeting when a quorum is present, shall be the act of the corporation.

ARTICLE X DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious, charitable and educational purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person. In the event of the dissolution of this corporation, the membership shall, after paying, or making provisions for the payment of, all the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all assets of the corporation exclusively to such organization or organizations established and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or religious, purposes as shall, at the time, qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code

(or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the membership shall determine.

ARTICLE XI BY-LAWS

The membership of this corporation may provide By-laws inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation, for the conduct of the corporation's business and the carrying out of its purposes. Such By-laws may be made, amended, altered or rescinded from time to time, in whole or in part.

Any member may propose an amendment at a regular or special business meeting of the membership at which a quorum is present. The proposal to call a subsequent meeting for the purpose of amending the By-laws shall require approval of all majority of the quorum present.

If so approved, a ten (10) days notice of the meeting and a copy of any proposed amendment which is to be considered at such meeting shall be given to each member by mail, telephonic notice or email.

Any amendment must be adopted by resolution of two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership who are actually present at the meeting properly called at which a quorum is present.

ARTICLE XII AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by any member at a regular or special business meeting at which a quorum is present. The proposal to call a subsequent meeting for the purpose of amending the Articles of Incorporation shall require approval of a majority of the quorum present.

If, so approved, a ten (10) days notice of the meeting and a copy of any proposed amendment which is to be considered at such meeting shall be given to each member in writing, by mail, telephonic devise and/or email.

Any amendment must be adopted by resolution of two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership of those who are actually present. The two-thirds (2/3) vote requirement means two-thirds (2/3) of those members present at the meeting called for that purpose and not two-thirds (2/3) of the entire board.

The approved amendment(s) shall become final upon filing and approval by the Secretary of the State of Florida.
