ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

Article 1 Name

Helping Hearts and Hands - A Community Development Corporation

Article II Principal Office

6555 Whirlaway Circle
Orlando, Florida 32818

Article III Purpose

The specific purpose for which the corporation is initially organized is to revitalize low and/or moderate income communities by acquiring abandoned strip malls and grocery stores found within these communities, in order to establish services that:

- Creates technology computer and training centers for disadvantage youth in order to increase access to technology and provide technology career training opportunities for the community.

- Provides services, training, employment, and housing for developmentally disabled adults

- Services to include:

- Respite Care
- Personal Care Assistance
- Companion Care

- Provide employment assistance and training for men and women totally released from incarceration for minor crimes against society, and to also engage in activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient for the accomplishment of that purpose, or which are incidental thereto or connected therewith which are consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for community development purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (1) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any other corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. The purposes for which this corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, scientific, literary and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

Article IV Manner of Election

The corporation will have non-voting board members that are known as "Directors", which will be detailed in the bylaws.

Initial officers have accepted a formal invitation to serve in the assigned positions for two years. After this initial duration, the officers of the board will be nominated and voted into office annually. Directors will server for one year and will be re-appointed, as determined by the officers of the board. Details will be provided in the bylaws.

The Directors of the corporation shall consist of any person, appointed and accepted by the officers of the board, expressing a desire to help further the purposes for which the corporation was organized, and who is willing to regularly contribute time and service for this regard. A mature person of noble character, and good reputation, within the community, who is willing to contribute time for these purposes may, upon request, be admitted to membership by a majority vote of the officers of the board.
