Article III – Purpose

The purpose and function of this organization is to liberate and empower families and single parent households one by one, spiritually, financially, educationally, socially and culturally. To provide services which targets children and youth including prevention and intervention programs to thwart off potential negative draws, such as drugs, gang violence and other peer pressure, that plague today's youth. We strive to also renew families through education, counseling and personal development programs. To provide dignity and a new way of life through compassionate service to those in need.
