AMENDMENTS ADOPTED:

[DELETE INITIAL ARTICLE III AND SUBSTITUTE]

Article III PURPOSE

The specific purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to provide excellent professional private, and confidential "faith based" counseling with an emphasis on an individual plan and information and referrals when needed in any area "of life confrontations" to strengthen our communities, homes and individuals from a faith based approach. Services include family counseling for individuals, families, ex-offenders and at-risk youth; job placement and training; housing; HIV testing, counseling and prevention; community information and referrals, food bank and clothing distribution; elderly activities and other activities and services as needed, with intention to construct a multi-purpose center. This corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes relating to the formation of corporations not for profit.

[CHANGE NUMBERING ON INITIAL ARTICLES]

Change "Article VI" INITIAL REGISTERED AGENT AND STREET ADDRESS TO ARTICLE IX.

Change "Article VII" INCORPORATOR TO ARTICLE X.

[ADD THE FOLLOWING]

Article VI
LIMITATIONS ON ACTIONS

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation [except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code], and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. This corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article VII
PROHIBITION AGAINST PRIVATE INUREMENT

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Article VIII
DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed by the Board of Directors or its designee, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or shall be distributed to the federal, state or local government, for a public purpose or to a not-for-profit agency as defined by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Such distribution shall be made in accordance with all applicable provisions of the laws of this state.

[AND ADD]

ARTICLE XI Bylaws

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall adopt Bylaws consistent with these Articles of Incorporation. Thereafter, the Bylaws may be altered or rescinded at any meeting of the Board upon the vote of a majority of the members, present and voting, who deem it necessary, provided notice has been given of such change in accordance with the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XII Amendment

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority of the Board of Directors, at a regular or special meeting, when deemed necessary. Upon approval, such amendment must also be forwarded to the Secretary of the State of Florida for filing and approval before the same shall be effective.
