ELECTION OF THE BOARD

The business affairs of this Organization shall be managed by the Board of Directors consisting of seven (7) members in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and By Laws of this Organization and no less than (3) members.

(a) Initial Board. The Board of Directors shall consist of the subscribing incorporators who shall serve until a board constituted in accordance with Section B of this Article can be selected and met.

(b) As soon as practical after Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall be selected and met in an organizational meeting. The subscribing incorporators may select additional board members to serve until the first annual meeting for the ensuing Year. The election of the Board of Directors thereafter shall be in accordance with the by-laws which shall prescribe the number of directors, the manner chosen and the manner of filling vacancies. The Board of Directors shall never be less than three members.

(c) The officers of the corporation shall be a president, a secretary, a treasurer, directors and such other officers as may be provided in the by-laws. The office of secretary and treasurer may be combined and held by one person. The officers shall be elected as provided in the by-laws.

ARTICLE IX

DUTIES OF THE BOARD

The President shall be the principle executive officer of the Corporation and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the Corporation. He shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, unless there is a Chairman of the Board, in which case the Chairman shall preside. The President shall by virtue of his office be Chairman of the Board of Directors. He/she shall present at each annual meeting of the organization an annual report of the work of the organization. He/she shall appoint all committees, temporary or permanent. He/she shall see all books, reports and certificates required by law are properly kept or filed. He/she shall be one of the officers who may sign the checks or drafts of the organization. He shall have such powers as may be reasonably construed as belonging to the chief executive of any organization.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes and records of the organization in appropriate books. It shall be his duty to file any certificate required by any statute, federal or state. He shall give and serve all notices to members of this organization. He shall be the official custodian of the records and seal of this organization. He may be one of the officers required to sign the checks and drafts of the organization. He shall present to the membership at any meetings any communication addressed to him as Secretary of the organization. He shall submit to the Board of Directors any communications which shall be addressed to him as Secretary of the organization. He shall attend to all correspondence of the organization and shall exercise all duties incident to the office of Secretary.

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all monies belonging to the organization and shall be solely responsible for such monies or securities of the organization. He shall cause to be deposited in a regular business bank or trust company and the balance of the funds of the organization shall be deposited in a savings bank except that the Board of Directors may cause such funds to be invested in such investments as shall be legal for a non-profit corporation in this state. He must be one of the officers who shall sign checks or drafts of the organization. No special fund may be set aside that shall make it unnecessary for the Treasurer to sign the checks issued upon it. He shall render at stated periods as the Board of Directors shall determine a written account of the finances of the organization and such report shall be physically affixed to the minutes of the Board of Directors of such meeting. He shall exercise all duties incident to the office of Treasurer. Officers shall by virtue of their office be members of the Board of Directors.

No officer shall for reason of his office be entitled to receive any salary or compensation, but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent an officer or director for receiving any compensation from the organization for duties other than as a director or officer.

ARTICLE X

SALARIES. The Board of Directors shall hire and fix the compensation of any and all employees which they in their discretion may determine to be necessary for the conduct of the business of the organization. Such employees should be Executive Director, Office Manager, Program Manager, Director of Development, Bookkeeper, Program Staff Positions etc.

ARTICLE XI

COMMITTEES

COMMITTEES. All committees of this organization shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and their term of office shall be for a period of one year or less if sooner terminated by the action of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII

ANNUAL MEETINGS

The by-laws of the Organization may be made, altered, or rescinded at any annual meeting of the Organization or at any special meeting duly called for such purpose, on the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors existing at the time of and present at such meeting except that the initial by-laws of the Organization shall be made and adopted by the officers/directors.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDMENTS

Amendments of these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by a Board member of the Organization. These Articles may be amended at any annual meeting of the Organization. or at any special meeting duly called and held for such purpose, on the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Board of Directors existing at the time of, and present at such meeting.

ARTICLE XIV

The Organization may be dissolved only with the assent given in writing and signed by two-third (2/3) of the Board. Written notice of a proposal to dissolve setting forth the reasons therefore and the disposition to be made of the assets shall be mailed to every member at least sixty (60) days in advance.

ARTICLE XV

DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution, the assets of the Organization shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. In the event such distribution is refused acceptance, such assets shall be granted, conveyed, and assigned to any non-profit corporation, association, trust, or other organization organized and operated for such similar purposes.

ARTICLE XVI

CORPORATE SEAL

The Board of Directors shall provide a corporate seal and a logo, which shall be circular in form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the state of incorporation and the words "Corporate Seal."
