ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of the corporation is:

Bridge Building International Missions Outreach Ministries, Inc.

ARTICLE II: PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

400 PLANT AVE., N.E.
PALM BAY, FL 32907

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE:

A. The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

The Corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and/or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and, in particular, for the following purposes:

The Bridge Building International Missions Outreach Ministries is a Non Profit Apostolic Mission Outreach Organization. We are committed to fulfilling the Great Commission of the Lord Jesus Christ (Matthew 28:18-20), through the power of his Holy Spirit and the gifts God has given us, and by daily prayer and consecration. We serve the local and international Body of Christ by developing and coordinating an effective and comprehensive program of missions, community outreach, and providing leadership to and supervision of staff members and volunteers involved in this ministry. As called by Christ, we diligently seek to reach out to others and to impact the community in positive and compassionate ways. Mission outreach is expressed through a wide range of programs including but not limited national and international communities/organizations.

The corporation shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its activities.

To do each and every thing necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects enumerated in these Articles, or which shall at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Corporation.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida and the objects and purposes set forth in these Articles, it is expressly provided that to such extent as a nonprofit corporation organized under the Florida Nonprofit Corporation Code may now or in the future lawfully do, the Corporation shall have the power to do, either as principal or agent and either alone or in connection with other corporations, firms or individuals, all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for, or in connection with, or incident to, the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects enumerated in these Articles, or designed directly or indirectly to promote the interests of the Corporation or to enhance the value of its properties; and in general to do any and all things and exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a corporation may now or in the future be authorized to do or to exercise under the Florida Nonprofit Corporation Code or under any act amending, supplementing or substituting for that Code.

The provisions of this Article III shall be construed both as purposes and powers and each as an independent purpose and power. The specific purposes and powers enumerated above shall, except when otherwise provided in this Article III, in no way be limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any provision of this or any other Article of these Articles of Incorporation.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, Directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Code Section 4942.

The corporation shall not engage in any act of self dealing as defined in Code Section 4941(d).

The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Code Section 4943(c).

The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Code Section 4944.

The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Code Section 4945(d).

B. Distribution of Assets Upon Dissolution

By unanimous vote of the Directors of the Corporation then in office, these articles may be surrendered and the Corporation dissolved. In the event of dissolution, whether voluntary or involuntary, the residual assets of the Corporation will be turned over to one or more organizations which, at the time of such distribution(s), themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any prior or future law, or to the federal, state or local government for exclusive public purpose, and in no event shall any benefit accrue by reason of any such dissolution to any of the incorporators, officers or Directors of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS:

A. Time and manner for the election of new Directors:

The term of each Director of Bridge Building International Missions Outreach Ministries shall be three (3) years or until a successor Director has been elected or until his earlier resignation, death or removal. The election of Directors for positions which terms have expired or will expire shall occur at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors the first week of January or otherwise at a regular quarterly meeting of the Board (after the first of October, January, April and July) by unanimous vote of the existing Board of Directors for each position to be filled. Directors shall be eligible for reelection without limitation on the number of terms served. The next election will be held January 2009.
