ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
KENNETH KIRCHMAN FOUNDATION, INC.

A Florida Corporation Not for Profit

On February 6, 2014 the Members and the Board of Directors of the Corporation unanimously voted to completely amend and restate the initial Articles of Incorporation as set forth below. In furtherance thereof, the undersigned hereby files these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to completely amend and restate the initial Articles of Incorporation that were filed with the Secretary of State on June 6, 2008 and assigned document number N08000005525.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the Corporation shall be the KENNETH KIRCHMAN FOUNDATION, INC. The street address and the mailing address of the Corporation shall be 7555 Old Melbourne Highway, St. Cloud, Florida 34771.

ARTICLE II

Purposes

(1) The Corporation is formed exclusively for the following general objects or purposes: to operate as a charitable, scientific, and educational organization within the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3), 170(c)(2), 2055(a), and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

(2) Furthermore, it is anticipated that the Corporation will own and operate a certain parcel of land located in Osceola County, Florida, which was held in a trust established by the late Kenneth P. Kirchman, the primary benefactor of the Corporation, and known as the "Lake X Property", and regarding the Lake X Property, the general objects and purposes of the Corporation are as follows (provided, that such objects and purpose shall always be consistent with the general objects and purposes set forth in Paragraph (1) of this Article):

(a) To preserve, protect, and enhance the Lake X Property in its natural and scenic condition for enjoyment by the general public. In attempting to implement the general and specific purposes set forth above, the following land management practices, rules, and regulations shall be considered: Hunting and fishing should be allowed on the Lake X Property to the extent such activities are in furtherance of the general objects and purpose of the Corporation; pepper trees, myrtle trees and non-native plants and trees should be destroyed or removed from the Lake X Property on a regular basis, however all native species of plants and animals should be left undisturbed; and drilling for water, oil, or other minerals should all be prohibited on the Lake X Property.

(b) To utilize the Lake X Property to educate the general public about Florida ecology and wildlife, and to develop educational programs for such purposes, in particular, to educate children about Florida ecology and wildlife by providing access to the Lake X Property through field trips or camps, and by providing educational programs to such children.

(c) To allow for the use of the Lake X Property for charitable, scientific, and educational purposes in any manner which is not inconsistent with the specific purposes set forth above.

(3) Regarding any assets of the Corporation other than the Lake X Property, the general objects and purposes are as follows (provided, that such objects and purpose shall always be consistent with the general objects and purposes set forth in Paragraph (1) of this Article):

(a) To use such assets to further the objects and purposes of the Corporation with respect to the Lake X Property as set forth in Paragraph (2) of this Article and to the extent that such assets consist of financial assets such as cash, stock, bonds, and other securities, such assets shall be invested and the income generated thereby shall be used to provide for the maintenance and upkeep of the Lake X Property, to fund the projects described in Paragraph (2) above, and to cover the other operating expenses of the Corporation. Any income in excess of the amounts required for these purposes in any one year may be used to make grants to charitable organizations qualified as such under Florida law and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

(b) In addition, if the Corporation is subject to Section 4942 of the Code, the Corporation shall make grants to charitable organizations qualified as such under Florida law and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code to the extent necessary for the Corporation to avoid any tax under Section 4942 of the Code.

ARTICLE III Powers

Except as limited by these Articles of Incorporation or its Bylaws, the Corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers in furtherance of its objects and purposes as are now or may hereafter be conferred on not for profit corporations pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes and other applicable law.

ARTICLE IV Limitations on Activities

Section 1. The Corporation shall not be conducted or operated for profit, and the foregoing objects, purposes, rights and powers are each and all subject to the limitations that no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual or

Member, that no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation or participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office, and that no grant, donation, gift, contribution, scholarship, fellowship or loan shall be made to any organization a substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation or participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

Section 2. The foregoing objects, purposes, rights and powers are also subject to the limitations that, if the Corporation is a private foundation, the Corporation shall make distributions at such times, and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, and the Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code and shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE V Dissolution

In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, the Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to dispose of the total assets of the Corporation in such manner as they may by a majority vote determine; provided, however, that such disposition shall be calculated exclusively to carry out the objects and purposes set forth in Article II above, subject to the limitations contained in Article IV above. In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the Corporation shall after necessary expenses thereof be distributed to such charitable organizations as shall qualify as such under Florida law and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Directors shall determine.
