SECRETARY OF STATE,
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned Incorporator, for the purpose of forming a corporation under the Florida Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of the corporation shall be:

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS ACADEMY, INC.

ARTICLE II: PLACE OF BUSINESS

The address of the principal office of this corporation shall be 10870 S.W. 113th Place, Miami, FL 33176, and the mailing address of the corporation shall be 13262 S.W. 119th Terrace Miami, Fl. 33186.

ARTICLE III: NATURE OF BUSINESS

- A. This corporation is a not-for-profit, public benefit corporation organized under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes - the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable and educational purposes. It is not organized for the private gain of any person.
- B. The purpose for which this organization is formed is exclusively for non-profit, educational and charitable purposes, including, but not limited to, the operation of a private school for children with Autism, Down Syndrome, Cerebral Palsy and other disabilities, within the meanings and purposes described in the nonprofit public benefit law under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code), as amended.

- C. This organization's mission is to develop, manage and operate the Beyond Expectations Academy, Inc, as a not-for-profit private school to educate, train, manage, tutor, help and mainstream children with disabilities into an inclusion or a public school system at whatever point they may be ready.
- D. With this mission in mind, the primary goal of the school will be to educate children ages 6 through 17, with an additional goal to expand to preschool through kindergarten, as the school's ability to render such services may be reached.
- E. An additional mission of this not-for-profit corporation is to assist inclusion or public schools in the education, training, managing, tutoring, advocacy, language remediation, helping and mainstreaming of children with autism and other disabilities.
- F. This corporation may work and partner with other organizations that qualify as exempt organization(s) under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code), as amended.
- G. To acquire, own purchase, lease, dispose of an deal with real and personal property and interests, either absolutely or in trust therein and to apply gifts, grants, bequests, devises and proceeds thereof in furtherance of the purposes and the mission of this not-for-profit corporation.
- H. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
- I. This corporation may also engage or transact any lawful teaching, tutoring or schooling in any part of the world as permitted under the laws of the United States, the State of Florida or any other state, country or nation.
- J. In addition, this corporation may engage or transact in any or all lawful activities or business permitted under the laws of the United States, the State of Florida or any other state, country, territory or nation.

ARTICLE IV: MANNER OF ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The corporation is governed by a Board of Directors. The management and affairs of the corporation shall be at all times under the direction of the Board of Directors, whose operations in governing the corporation shall be as defined by statute and by the corporation's By-Laws.

The manner in which the directors are elected is by ballot at the annual meeting of the corporation. If a vacancy occurs or the board is expanded prior or between annual meetings, the vacancy will be filled at a regular Board meeting by ballot. The newly elected Board member will serve out the remainder of the current year for the vacated or newly created position and will need to be re-elected at the next annual meeting following the process described in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XI: VOTING RIGHTS

Members of the corporation will have such voting rights as are provided in the By-Laws of the corporation.

ARTICLE XII: INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The corporation may indemnify an individual made a part to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination in the manner required by the Board of Directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the Board of Directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorneys fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the corporation's request while director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not-for-profit, as well as in their official capacity with the corporation. The corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee or agent to the corporation, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to the indemnification or advance of attorneys fees and expenses to any personal who is or was director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or the ability of the corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not otherwise affected. All references in these Articles Of Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee" and "agent" shall include heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.
