Article III is amended in total to read:

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, but not limited to, for such purpose as making distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VIII is hereby added to read:

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its member(s), trustee(s), officer(s) or other private person(s), except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purpose of the Corporation.

Article IX is hereby added to read:

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purpose(s) within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes as said court shall determine.
