ARTICLE II

PURPOSES AND POWERS

The general nature of the objects and purposes of the Corporation shall be as follows:

- A. This Corporation shall engage only in such activities as are permitted to Corporations whose income is exempt for taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States from time to time existing and similar or substitute section of said Code. This corporation shall not engage in, nor shall any of its assets or earnings be used or applied to activities which carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation, or participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now existing or as hereafter amended. No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private member.

- B. This Corporation shall have as its objectives and purposes the dissemination of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God throughout the world before He comes again, through missions, circulation of tracts, Internet, the printing and publication of news letters, magazines, book, literature, recordings, tapes, and the like. Pursuant to the foregoing, the corporation may engage in the business of printing, binding, publishing, circulating, distributing and dealing in books, pamphlets, circulars, posters, periodicals, literature, music pictures, and other printed matter and the assembling of persons for the purpose of traveling to and spreading the gospel through missionaries, assemblies, seminars, and other groups or places, the giving of testimonies in such places or groups including churches whether in this country or abroad.
- C. For the purpose of carrying out the foregoing objects and the purposes of this corporation, and for no other purposes, this corporation shall have the power to take possession of, received by gifts, devise, bequest or otherwise, and to purchase, sell, own, hold, care for, manage, convey, convert, assign, exchange, dispose of, disburse, issue, lease, pledge, invest and reinvest, collect, deal with, mortgage, contract with respect to, allot, grant and exercise options with respect to, protect, release, repair, improve or sue for monies or other property of every kind or nature, real or personal, tangible or intangible, and the income and avails thereof, including by illustration but not in limitations; studios, stations, transmitting, receiving and recording apparatus for broadcasting on radio, television, or other method of communication and permits and licenses therefore; recording and reproducing instruments of any kind or nature and all accessories thereto; printing presses and other printing equipment, supplies, and apparatus; schools and all manners of school equipment, supplies, tools, and machinery, stocks, bonds, chooses in action, annuities, insurance on life of any person; and in general, to acquire, own, maintain, operate, and dispose of every type of property and to do any act or thing, enter into and carry out any agreement and execute any writing that may be necessary to carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation, and for no other purposes, this corporation shall have the power to exercise any and every right and power that a non-profit, charitable corporation, organized under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, could exercise and yet remain exempt from income taxation under the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, including the powers granted by Section 617.21 of said Chapter 617 to act as trustee of property, whenever this Corporation has a beneficial, contingent or remainder interest therein, and the hold the legal title to property, the beneficial interest of which is owned by any other eleemosynary institution or non-profit corporation, or fraternal, benevolent, charitable or religious society or association.

- D. All assets and earnings of the corporation shall be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in Paragraphs "B" and "C" above, including the payment of necessary and proper expenses thereto, and shall always be subject to the limitations set forth in Paragraph "A" above.
- E. To provide medical and dental help for the under-privileged and needy persons.
- F. To operate a school for wayward or needy children, and to employ teachers or other professional help needed for rehabilitations or training.
- G. To operate a shelter for men and or women with substance abuse issues, homeless, or children who have been displaced due to abuse and neglect, and to employ professional help needed for rehabilitation or training.
- H. To operate missionary work for the dissemination of the gospel, both here and overseas, and to ship equipment, and other paraphernalia, needed for such work and to operate training programs in connection therewith.

ARTICLE III

The qualification of members of this Corporation and the manner of their admission shall be as follows:

- A. Members shall be adults who accept, believe in, and rely on Jesus Christ for their salvation, and believe that the Holy Bible is the Word of God. Other qualifications may be prescribed in the By-Laws of the Corporation.
