ARTICLE XI
Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted under State Florida Law, the Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless every Director and every officer of the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by or imposed on a director or officer in connection with any legal proceeding (or settlement or appeal of such proceeding) to which a director or officer may be made a party because of that individual being, or having been, a director or officer of the Corporation. The foregoing right to indemnification shall not be available if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that a director or officer's actions or omissions to act were material to the cause adjudicated and included any of the following:

- A) Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interest of the Corporation, in a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor.
- B) A felony conviction law, unless the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that its own action was unlawful or had reasonable cause to believe its own action was lawful.
- C) A transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit.
- D) Recklessness, or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard for human rights, safety or property, in an action by or in the right of someone other than the Corporation or a member.
- E) Wrongful conduct by directors or officers appointed by the Members, in a proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Corporation.

In the event of a settlement, the right to indemnification shall not apply unless a majority of the disinterested directors approves such settlement as being in the best interest of the Corporation. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to which a director or officer may be entitled.

Without approving or ratifying any transactions to date, the incorporators have executed these Articles of Incorporation on this _____ day of _____, 2008.
