ARTICLE VIII- SUPPLIMENTAL PROVISIONS

(a) This corporation is organized exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of Section (501)(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities, not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding section of any future federal tax code), or (2) by corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding section of any future federal tax code).

(c) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements), on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE IX - DISSOLUTION

The property of this organization is irrevocably dedicated to religious purposes, and no part of the net income or assets of this organization shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member of thereof, or the benefit of any private person.

Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and liabilities of this corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to another nonprofit, religious corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes so long as the organization maintains its tax exempt status as a religious organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to any other nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
