ARTICLE III PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS, AND DISSOLUTION

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and promotional purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. To this end, the corporation shall make available to those in need the opportunity to help themselves and others by a Christian 12 Step Recovery Program. They can attend meetings in person or online. The corporation will also produce and distribute the Program on Compact Discs, Booklets, Books, and Workbooks. All funds, whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.

Everyone is welcomed, especially those who suffer from depression, alcohol or drug abuse, gambling addiction, smoking habit, eating disorders, sexual addictions, emotional and spiritual recovery from abortions, any mental, emotional, physical malady, a financial loss due to unforeseen circumstances, those who lost friends or family members, and those who lost their way, who need to be "restored", to be brought back to wholeness again within the Body of Christ.

LIMITATIONS

At all times the following shall operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the corporation:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to any member of the corporation not qualifying as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as now enacted or hereafter amended, nor to any Director of the corporation, nor to any other private persons, excepting solely such reasonable compensation that the corporation shall pay for services actually rendered to the corporation, or allowed by the corporation as a reasonable allowance for authorized expenditures incurred on behalf of the corporation;
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

4. The corporation shall not lend any of its assets to any director of this corporation or guarantee to any person the payment of a loan by a director of this corporation.

DISSOLUTION

Upon the time of dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed by the Board of Directors, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all debts, obligations, liabilities, costs and expenses of the corporation, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
