ARTICLE 7 RESERVATION OF POWERS TO MEMBER

The Corporation is an apostolate of the Catholic Church and as such the Canon Law requires that certain rights should be reserved to the Member. Therefore, the following rights are specifically reserved to the Member:

- (a) The operating philosophy of the Corporation shall be approved by the Member;
- (b) Corporate property may not be leased, sold or encumbered without the express written approval of the Member;
- (c) The Corporation may not be merged or dissolved without the express written approval of the Member; and
- (d) Any additional rights as provided for in the Bylaws

ARTICLE 8 PURPOSES

A. The specific and primary purpose for which this Corporation is formed is to establish and maintain a Secondary (High School) Catholic learning institution for the instruction of students in religion, the arts, science, literature, and all branches of a thorough education, with authority to grant diplomas and degrees.

B. The general purposes for which this corporation is formed are to establish, receive and maintain a fund or funds for the operational support of the Learning Institution; to that end, to take and receive by gift, grant, bequest, devise or otherwise any and all property of and sort or nature, without limitation as to amount or value, and to manage, administer, invest, reinvest, and dispose of the same; to administer endowment funds; from time to time pay and apply the funds and property of the Corporation, including the principal as well as income thereof, for the support of the Learning Institution.

C. Subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any gift, devise or bequest, to invest its funds in such mortgages, bonds, debentures, shares of preferred and common stock and other securities and property as its directors shall deem advisable, and to that end to purchase, sell, mortgage, lease, pledge, encumber, assign and transfer the same.

D. To the extent permitted by law, to do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 9 LIMITATIONS ON ACTIVITIES

The Corporation shall be operated exclusively for religious and educational purposes as a not for profit corporation within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal revenue Law).

ARTICLE 10 TAX EXEMPT STATUS

It is intended that the Corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code and which is other than a private foundation as defined in section 509 of the Code. These Articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such extent as would result in the loss of exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Code. All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

ARTICLE 11 DISSOLUTION

No person, firm or corporation shall ever receive any dividends or profits from the undertaking of this Corporation and upon dissolution, all of its assets remaining after payment of all costs and expenses of such dissolution shall be distributed to organizations selected by the sole Member which have qualified for exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and none of the assets will be distributed to the Member, or any officer or director of this Corporation, provided, however, that the corporation may confer benefits in the form of distributions, in dissolution or otherwise, upon a not-for-profit corporate member described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE 12 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business affairs of this Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors. This Corporation shall have four Directors initially. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time, in accordance with the Bylaws but shall never be less than three nor more than twenty. The sole Member of this Corporation shall appoint the Directors. The sole Member may remove any and all of the Directors from the Board, with or without cause and at any such time as he may determine in his sole discretion.
