We have received your document for MAKIN' MOVES, INC. and your check(s) totaling $70.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an administratively dissolved/revoked entity. Names of administratively dissolved/revoked entities are not available for one year from the date of administrative dissolution/revocation unless the dissolved/revoked entity provides the Department of State with an affidavit or letter stating that they have no intention of reinstating, therefore, releasing the name for use to another entity.

Adding "of Florida" or "Florida" to the end of a name is not acceptable.

The purpose contained in your articles of incorporation should be more specific. Please correct your articles to reflect the specific purpose for which the corporation is being organized.

If you have any further questions concerning your document, please call (850) 245-6062.

The undersigned acting as incorporators of a corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE ONE:

Name

The name of the Corporation shall be MAKIN' MOVES, INC., hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation".

ARTICLE TWO

Principal Office and Address

The principal place of business of this Corporation shall be 338 NE 54th Street, Suite 2, Miami, FL 33137 and mailing address of this Corporation shall be the same.

ARTICLE THREE

Duration & Existence

The term of existence of the Corporation is perpetual; and the corporate existence will commence on the day of the filing of these articles by the Department of State.

ARTICLE FOUR

Purpose

This Corporation is organized under this act for any lawful purpose or purposes not for pecuniary profit and not specifically prohibited to corporations under other laws of this state. Such purposes include, without limitation, charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes.

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The Corporation is formed for such charitable purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Corporation shall be organized and operated in the public interest, not for the benefit of designated persons or its founders, and will not, except to an insubstantial amount, engage in activities that do not further this organization's exempt purposes. Such purposes shall include but shall not be limited to providing financial support, by way of grants, contributions, loans or otherwise, to other organizations exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

All references herein: (i) to the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or hereafter amended; and (ii) to particular sections of the Internal revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to similar or successor provisions hereafter adopted.

ARTICLE FIVE

Powers

Without in any way limiting the foregoing, the Corporation shall have those powers granted by Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

The Corporation shall be a not-for-profit corporation and shall have no authority to issue capital stock.

The Corporation shall not be a membership corporation.

ARTICLE SIX

Limitation on Powers

No part of the assets of the Corporation and no part of any net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. No substantial part of the activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in any political campaign of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation or the by-laws of the Corporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Distribution of Assets

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principle office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.
