ARTICLE TWO Purpose

This is organized exclusively for a charitable, crime prevention and community relations role assisting victims and their families, more specifically to enhance the knowledge and awareness of not speaking up and speaking out when a crime against another person has been committed. This organization is responsible for working within our community to assist victims and their families by facilitating their voices and concerns as it relates to their victimization. We will implement various educational strategies and training techniques, which will accentuate the traditional crime prevention services. In turn, this will lead to a reduction in the incident and fear of crime, decreasing the potential of crime, increasing community relationships and overall enhancing our quality of life. To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes with the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making and distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.
