Article III – Purpose -

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Said corporation performs animal-assisted activities, such as; visit seniors in nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and day care centers for medically fragile children, visit special needs children in hospitals, schools, respite programs, plus helping children gain confidence with their reading by reading to a trusted therapy dog, at libraries and schools. Help to lift spirits of battered women and children at the secured safe home, and always "Turning Frowns Upside Down".

ARTICLE VI: Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to the state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names this 12th day of September, 2011.
