Article III is amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

1. The corporation is organized and shall be operated as a corporation not for profit, exclusively for religious, charitable, literary and educational purposes as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now or hereafter amended ("Code").

2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall be empowered to make the election authorized under Code Section 501(h). The corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Code section 501(c)(3) or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2).

4. Solely for the above purposes, the corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon corporations not for profit, including, but without limitation thereon, to receive gifts, bequests and contributions in any form, to use, apply, invest, and reinvest the principal and/or income therefrom or distribute the same for the above purposes.

5. Without in any way limited the foregoing purposes, the corporation shall be authorized to receive contributions and to make distributions of cash and property which qualify as "qualifying distributions", as defined in Code Section 4942(g) or which qualify as a "set-aside", as described in Code Section 4942(h).

Article XII is added as follows:

ARTICLE XII

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON DISSOLUTION

In the event the corporation dissolves, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all remaining assets of the corporation exclusively to charitable organizations which should then qualify under the provisions of Code Section 501(c)(3) and the treasury regulations, as now they exist, or as they may hereafter be amended.
