ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
In Compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

FILED

2009 FEB -5 P 10: 35

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be:

Genesis Family Resource Center Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal street address and mailing address, if different is:

4480 Landes Drive, Pensacola FL 32505

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that also qualify as Section 501(c)(3) exempt organizations. To this end, the corporation shall provide life enhancing resources such as vocational classes, life management sessions, parenting skills and legal counseling services to young fathers, newly released male inmates and men who find themselves within poverty levels. We aspire to assist in developing positive, hardworking and responsible male role models that can live in harmony within our community while maintaining a rewarding life for themselves and for their families.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed:

The corporation may (but need not) have voting members, and such membership, if any, and classes thereof, shall be as defined in the corporation's bylaws. The management and affairs of the corporation shall be at all times under the direction of a Board of Directors, whose operations in governing the corporation shall be defined by statute and by the corporation's by-laws. No member of Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation.

At all times the following shall operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the corporation. Our corporations limitations are as follows:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to any member of the corporation not qualifying as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, nor to any Director or officer of the corporation, nor to any other private persons, excepting solely such reasonable compensation that the corporation shall pay for services actually rendered to the corporation, or allowed by the corporation as a reasonable allowance for authorized expenditures incurred on behalf of the corporation;
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; and
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended.

Upon the time of dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed by the Board of Directors, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all debts, obligations, liabilities, costs and expenses of the corporation, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
