ARTICLE XII

Indemnification

A. Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, (each of such matters is considered a "proceeding" as that term is used throughout this Article), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a trustee or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a trustee, director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a trustee, director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a trustee, director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by Florida law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said Law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment) against all expenses, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, appeals, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith; provided, however, that the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with an action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of trustees of the Corporation. Such right shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation for expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that, the payment of such expenses incurred by a trustee or officer in his or her capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a trustee or officer (including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such trustee or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately that such trustee or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Section or otherwise.

B. Right of Claimant to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph A. is not paid in full by the Corporation within ninety (90) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking has been tendered to the Corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under Florida law for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Trustees, independent legal counsel, or its members) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the law of the State of Florida, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Trustees, independent legal counsel, or its members) that the claimant had not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that claimant had not met the applicable standard of conduct.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any person by paragraphs A. and B. shall not be exclusive of any other right which such person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaw, agreement, vote of members or disinterested trustees or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any such trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under Florida law.

ARTICLE XIII

Bylaws

The bylaws of the Corporation are to be made and adopted by the Board of Trustees, and may be altered, amended or rescinded by the Board of Trustees. The provisions of Section 607.0206, Florida Statutes (1989) as amended from time to time, shall govern the bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendment

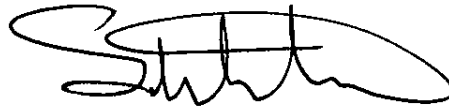

The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment to them, and all rights and privileges conferred upon the members, trustees and officers are subject to this reservation.
