ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

ACCESS OUTDOORS, INC.

(A Florida corporation not for profit)

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Florida Statutes Chapter 617, do hereby make and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE ONE

Name. The name of the corporation is ACCESS OUTDOORS, INC.

ARTICLE TWO

Not For Profit. The corporation is a corporation not for profit as defined in Florida Statutes §617.01401. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its members, directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under law.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any other activities not to be permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE THREE

Duration. The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE FOUR

Purposes. The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively for, the following purposes:

A. To provide outdoor experiences to those who might otherwise be unable to participate; to assist persons in overcoming physical, financial, geographic, social and age limitations to enable them to enjoy outdoor experiences; to educate the public at large, and persons interested in the benefits of positive outdoor experiences; to share the quality of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through outdoor fellowship; to provide an avenue of giving for those who have access to outdoor venues to provide access to those who do not have such access.

B. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon non-profit corporations, within the restrictions of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, lease or otherwise, any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate, or otherwise dispose of any such property and the income, principal and proceeds of such property, for any of the purposes set forth herein.

C. To do such other things as are incidental to the purposes of the corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish them.

D. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the purposes for which the corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable and educational within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE FIVE

Limitation. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors or officers, but the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Four (Purposes) hereof.

In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in §501(c)(3) or §170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any prior or future Internal Revenue Code, or to the federal, state or local government for exclusive public purposes.

ARTICLE SIX

Members. The corporation shall have voting members who shall be elected (and may be removed) by the voting members, and who shall be admitted in such manner and who shall have such rights and privileges as are set forth in the Bylaws. The Bylaws may also provide for non-voting members of one or more classes, who shall be admitted in such manner and who shall have such rights and privileges as are set forth in the Bylaws, but who shall not have the right to vote.
