The Corporation is formed to support the purposes and efforts of the USA Taekwondo Martial Arts Commission and, therefore, to sponsor and administer the Corporation and its related activities in support of and in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation which include, but are not limited to the following:

(A) Taekwondo is a dynamic wholistic practice for developing fitness and health, skill of mental and physical self-defense, artistic expression and sports (from the grass roots level to the Olympic level), and philosophical and spiritual awareness to obtain wholistic life skills. The fundamental purpose of the Florida State Taekwondo Martial Arts Commission is to further the development of that practice through the natural life cycle of education, training, application, and teaching.

(B) In addition, and in support of the same, the Corporation also has the following, related purposes:

- (1) Support of the Olympic effort of the United States of America, particularly as it relates to Taekwondo as an Olympic sport, within the philosophy of the Olympic spirit, including support and assistance to USA Taekwondo, the National Governing Body for sport Taekwondo in the United States and the USA Taekwondo Martial Arts Commission, from the grass roots level to the international level, including, but not limited to, conducting state Taekwondo championships.
- (2) Support and Supervision of matters relating to belt rank promotion, Poomse development and competition at all levels, instructor training through curricula, and school operation through curricula, and such other matters as are necessary to further the Corporation's efforts to enhance human development through education, training, application, and teaching of Taekwondo.
- (3) Restoration of the traditional values of Taekwondo in the United States of America as a vehicle for the development of human character through education, training, application, and teaching of Taekwondo.
- (4) Preservation of the history of Taekwondo in the United States of America including, but not limited to, writing a Taekwondo history and creating a Taekwondo Hall of Fame and Museum.
- (5) To abide by the Articles of Incorporation, any Bylaws, and any Codes of Regulation of the USA Taekwondo Martial Arts Commission as may be, from time to time, in effect.

- (6) To engage in charitable, scientific, literary, and educational purposes within the meaning of those terms as used in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and amended( the "Code").
- (7) To make charge for services or products as permitted by law, provided that all net income and property of the Corporation shall be used exclusively for the charitable, scientific literary, and educational purposes for which the Corporation was created.
- (8) To do such other things as may be necessary or advisable directly or indirectly to effectuate the foregoing purposes, including to have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on nonprofit corporations under the laws of Florida, or that may be conferred, including the power to contract for, rent, buy or sell personal or real property. However, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this Corporation; and
- (9) To receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property , or both, and , subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in this Article, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income from these funds and the principal of these funds exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be amended.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member or Trustee of the Corporation, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual ( except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, Trustee or office of the Corporation, nor any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and The Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Amended and Restated Articles, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the Regulations issued pursuant thereto, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code and Regulations, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

- On dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, scientific, literary, educational organizations that would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c) (3) of the Code.

This Corporation is organized pursuant to the Florida Nonprofit Corporation Law and does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to its members or Trustees, and is organized for nonprofit purposes.
