The Jesus H Christ Charitable Trust Declaration of Trust made as of the 28th day of January, 2009, by Eugene Fitzpatrick of 1414 Eastport road Jacksonville, Florida and Linda Ashley of 13903 Sawpit Road Jacksonville Florida whom hereby declare and agree that they have received this day from "Captain Boogie" as a donor the sum of ($20.00) and that they will hold and manage the same, and the additions to it, in trust, as follows:

First: The trust shall be called the Jesus H Christ Charitable Trust.

Second: The trustees may receive and except property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by the way of gift, bequest, or device, from any person, firm, trust, or corporation, to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with the pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust; but no gift, bequest, or device of any such property shall be received and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as to require the disposition of the income or its principal to any person or organizations other than a charitable organization or for other than charitable purposes. Within the meaning of such terms as defined in article third of this Declaration of Trust, or shall be in the opinion of the trustees, jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of this trust pursuant to Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Third: (a) The principal and income of all property received and accepted by the trustees to be administered under this Declaration of Trust shall be held in trust by them, and the trustees may make payments or distributions from income or principal, or both, to or for the use of such charitable organizations, within the meaning of that term as defined in paragraph C, in such amounts and for such charitable purposes of the trust as the trustees shall from time to time select and determine; and the trustees shall make payments and distributions from income or principal, or both directly for such charitable purposes, within the meaning of that term as defined in paragraph D, in such amounts as the trustees shall from time to time select and determine without making use of any other charitable organization. The trustees may also make payments or distributions of all or any part of the income or principal to states, territories, or possessions of the United States any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or to the United States or the District of Columbia, but only for charitable purposes within the meaning of that term as defined in paragraph D. Income or principal derived from contributions by the Corporations shall be distributed by the trustees for use solely within the United States or its possessions. No part of the net earnings of the trust shall inure or be payable to or for the benefit of any private shareholder individual and no substantial part of the activities of this trust shall be in carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation. No part of activities of this trust shall be in the participation in, or intervention in (including publications or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Fourth: The Declaration of Trust may be amended at any time or times by written instrument or instruments signed and sealed by the trustees, and acknowledged by any of the trustees, provided that no amendment shall authorize the trustees to conduct the affairs of this trust in any manner or for any purpose contrary to the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding of any future federal tax code. An amendment of the provisions of this article Fourth (or any amendment to it) shall be valid only if and to the extent that such amendment further restricts the trustees amending power. All instruments amending this Declaration of Trust shall be noted upon or kept attached to the executed original of this Declaration of Trust held by the trustees.

Fifth: Any trustees of this Declaration of Trust may, by instrument, sign and acknowledge resign his office. The number of trustees shall be at all times not less than two, and whenever for any reason the number is reduced to one, there shall be, and at any other time may be, appointed one or more additional trustees. Appointments shall be made by the trustee or trustees for the time in office by written instruments signed and acknowledged. Any succeeding or additional trustees shall, upon his or her acceptance of the office by written instrument signed and acknowledged, have the same powers, rights and duties, and the same title to the trust estate jointly with the surviving or remaining trustee or trustees as if originally appointed. None of the trustees shall be required to furnish any bond or surety. None of them shall be responsible or liable for the acts or omissions of any other of the trustees or any predecessor or a custodian, agent, depository or counsel selected with reasonable care. The one or more trustees, whether original or successor, of the time being in office, shall have full authority to act even though one or more vacancies may exist. A trustee may, by appropriate written instrument, delegate all or any part of his or her powers to another or others of the trustees for such periods and subject to such conditions as such delegating trustee may determine. The trustees serving under this Declaration of Trust are authorized to pay themselves amounts for reasonable expenses incurred and reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of this trust, but in no event shall any trustee who has made a contribution to this trust ever receive any compensation thereafter.

Sixth: In extension and not in limitation of the common law and statutory powers of trustees and other powers granted in this Declaration of Trust, the trustees shall have the following discretionary powers:

(a) To invest or reinvest the principal and income of the trust in such property, real, personal, or mixed, and in such manner as they shall deem proper, and from time to time change investments as they shall deem advisable; to invest in or retain any stocks, shares, bonds, notes, obligations, or personal or real property (including without limitation any investments in or obligations of any corporation, association, business trust, investment trust, common trust fund, or investment company) although some or all of the property so acquired or retained is of a kind or size which but for this express authority would not be considered proper and although all of the trust funds are invested in the securities of one company. No principal or income, however, shall be loaned, directly or indirectly, to any trustee or to anyone else, corporate or otherwise, who has at any time made a contribution

(b) The trust shall continue forever unless the trustees terminate it and distribute all of the principal and income which action shall be taken by the trustees in their discretion at that time. On such termination, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or for the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. The donor authorizes and empowers the trustees to form and organize a nonprofit corporation limited to the uses and purposes provided in this Declaration of Trust, such corporation shall be organized under the laws of any state or under the laws of the United States as may be determined by the trustees; such Corporation when organized to have a power to administer and control the affairs and property and to carry out the uses, objects, and purposes of this trust. Upon the creation and organization of such corporation, the trustees are authorized and empowered to convey, transfer and deliver to such Corporation all the property and assets to which this trust may be or become entitled. The charter, bylaws, and other provisions of the organization and management of such corporation and its affairs and property shall be such as the trustees shall determine, consistent with the provisions of this paragraph.

(c) In this Declaration of Trust and in amendments to it, references to "charitable organizations" or "charitable organization" mean corporations, trusts, funds, foundations, or community chests created or organized in the United States or in any of its possessions, whether under the laws of the United States, any state or territory, the District of Columbia, or any possession of the United States, organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures or is payable to or for the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and which do not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. It is intended that the organization described in this paragraph C shall be entitled to exemption from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(d) In the Declaration of Trust and in any amendments to it, the term "charitable purposes" shall be limited to and shall include only religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of those terms as used in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, but only for such purposes as also constitute public charitable purposes under the law of trust of the state of Florida.

to this trust, nor to anyone except on the basis of an adequate interest charge and with adequate security.

(b) To sell, lease, or exchange any personal, mixed, or real property, at public auction or by private contract, for such consideration and on such terms as to credit or otherwise, and to make such contracts and enter into such undertakings relating to the trust property, as they consider advisable, whether or not such leases or contracts may extend beyond the duration of the trust.

(c) To borrow money for such periods, at such rates of interest, and upon such terms as the trustees consider advisable, and as security for such loans to mortgage or pledge any real or personal property with or without power of sale; to acquire or hold any real or personal property, subject to any mortgage or pledge on or of property acquired or held by this trust.

(d) To execute and deliver needs, assignments, transfers, mortgages, pledges, leases, covenants, contracts, promissory notes, releases, and other instruments, sealed or unsealed, incident to any transaction in which they may engage.

(e) To vote, to give proxies, to participate in negotiation, merger or consolidation of any concern, or in any sale, lease, disposition, or distribution of its assets; to join with other security holders in acting through a committee, depositary, voting trustees, or otherwise, and in this connection to delegate authority to such committee, depositary, or trustees and to deposit securities with them or transfer securities to them; to pay assessment levied on securities or to exercise subscription rights in respect of securities.

(f) To employ a bank or trust company as custodian of any funds or securities and to delegate to it such powers as they deem appropriate; to hold trust property without indication of fiduciary capacity but only in the name of a registered nominee, provided that the trust property is at all times identified as such on the books of the trust; to keep any or all of the trust property or funds in any place or places in the United States of America; to employ clerks, accountants, investment counsel, investment agents, and any special services, and to pay the reasonable compensation and expenses of all such services in addition to the compensation of the trustees.

Seventh: The trustees' powers are exercisable solely in the fiduciary capacity consistent with and in the furtherance of the charitable purposes of this trust as specified in article third and not otherwise.

Eighth: In this Declaration of Trust and in any amendment to it, references to "trustees" mean the one or more trustees, whether original or successor, for the time being in office.

Ninth: Any person may rely on a copy, certified by a notary public, of the executed original of this Declaration of Trust held by the trustees, and in any of the notations on it and writings attached to it, as he might rely on the original documents themselves. Any such person may rely fully on any statements of fact certified by anyone who appears from such original documents or from such certified copy to be a trustee under this Declaration of Trust. No one dealing with the trustees need inquire concerning the validity of anything the trustees purport to do. No one dealing with the trustees need see the application of anything paid or transferred to or upon the order of the trustees of the trust.

Tenth: The Declaration of Trust is to be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Florida.
