ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be. ADVOCATES FOR WORLD HEALTH, INC.

ARTICLE II

The principle street address and mailing address. 5044 Cumberland Lane, Spring Hill, FL 34607

ARTICLE III

- 1.Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, or scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- 2.No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.
- 3.No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
- 4.Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- 5.Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV

1. As a board-only organization, the manner in which the directors are elected or appointed is performed without a shareholder body. With a 2/3rd's vote among all Board of Directors, at the time of a meeting whether present or absent, another director can be elected/terminated at the consensus/discretion of the board.
2. Additionally, an executive director may terminate a non-executive director for a reasonable cause of which cannot pertain to arbitrary and/or capricious reasoning.
3. It is possible for an executive director to be terminated if he/she violates their authority, given a 2/3rd's consensus vote among all directors, and/or if he/she disobeys the law.
