Article 6.
Duration

The duration (term) of the corporation is perpetual.

Article 7.
Purposes

The constitution of this corporation provides for the following: to establish, operate, maintain, purchase of school, counseling, educating in the State of Florida including but not limited to the State of Florida and abroad in order to express the love of our heavenly Father. To reach out to the world of people who will constitute the body, the church of Jesus Christ. We as a non-profit organization want to build, establish as the scriptures tells us upon the foundations of the apostles and prophets and whereas members of this body, the church, are joined together to worship, fellowship, educate, counsel, instruct through the word of God, the work of the ministry and for the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices for the establishment of our faith in Jesus Christ, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and further the cause of the Kingdom of God. To acquire, take, receive, purchase, own, hold, use, manage, mortgage, pledge, encumber, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of any property, including but not limited to real, personal, mixed tangible, intangibles, subscriptions, contributions, evidence of indebtedness, receipts and obligation, to receive donations, subscriptions and contributions and make donations to organizations created or similar and exercise corporate rights and powers, to do all lawful acts necessary or desirable to carry out its purpose, consistent with the law of the State of Florida.

The purpose of this non-profit corporation is to equip the saints to do the work of the ministry and therefore helping the churches to expand their vision, for the advancement of the gospel and the kingdom of God, establishing a group of people who will be trained, educated and equipped to preach the gospel, heal the sick, deliver the oppressed, to prophecy the heart and the mind of God; in doing this we will enlarge their faith and spiritual maturity to minister in a more efficient way with a spirit of excellency as God is to be honored and served. To enlarge the scope of their understanding, to encourage the weak, to give life and a purpose for all that come in contact with us, so that they will know the hope of God, the love of Jesus, and to see them also do the same by multiplying themselves. To reach out for those who are in different kinds of needs, not only spiritual. The great commission was given to use by our Lord Jesus in Mark 16:15-18 "Go into all the world, and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. These signs will accompany those who believe. In my name they will drive out demons, they will speak in new tongues, they will pick up snakes with their hands and if they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all and they will place their hands on the sick people and they will recover".

The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes, primarily including but not limited, to being the hands and feet of Jesus Christ which will be carried out as follows:

1. To enable the corporation to partner with Christian bodies to assist in bringing God's love and word through various activities; and
2. To promote the gospel of Jesus Christ in the United States and throughout the world.

Article 8.
Powers

Solely for the above purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

A. Anything in these articles of incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, the purpose or purposes for which this corporation is organized are limited to those that will qualify it as an exempt organization under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3), including, for those purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as tax-exempt organizations under the Internal Revenue Code.

This corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation. This corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

No part of the net earnings, properties or assets of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of any private person or individual or any member or director of this corporation. On liquidation or dissolution all properties and assets of this corporation remaining after paying or providing for all debts and obligations shall be distributed and paid over to a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated for charitable or religious purposes designated by the board of directors which shall at the time qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3), or as that statute may be amended.

B. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.

C. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act.

D. To do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the corporation.

Article 9.
Limitation

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members (if the corporation ever has any), directors or officers, but the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 7 (Purposes) of these Articles.

Article 10.
Tax Exempt Status

It is intended that the corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(a) as an organization described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3) and which is other than a private foundation as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. § 509. These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly. The corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such an extent as would result in the loss of exemption under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3). All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

Article 11.
Dissolution

On the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the board of directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 170(c)(1) or 26 U.S.C.A. § 170(c)(2)(B) and as described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 509(a)(1), (2) or (3).

Article 12.
Board of Directors

There shall be a board of directors consisting of at least three individuals. The initial directors are elected by the incorporators. After that, each director shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors in the manner and at the times set forth in the bylaws. Any director may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the board of directors.

ARTICLE 13.
Officers

The officers of the corporation may consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers and assistant officers as may be provided for in the bylaws or by resolution of the board of directors.
