Article III. PURPOSES:

The Corporation, a non profit, charitable corporation, is organized and will be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended ("the Code").

The purposes of the Corporation will be charitable and educational and will include, but are not limited to the following: to provide health care services, products and related assistance to those in need in the United States and Central and South America; to provide assistance to victims of fire, storm, and other natural disasters, and to further other charitable and educational purposes as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

This Corporation is also organized to promote, encourage, and foster any other similar charitable activities, and to engage in any and all lawful activities incidental to the foregoing purposes, except as restricted herein. Said powers shall include, but not be limited to, the power to sue and be sued, the power to enter into contracts; the right to receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by Will, and otherwise acquire and hold all property, real or personal, including shares of stock, bonds and securities of other corporations; to convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer upon trust or otherwise dispose of any property, real or personal; the power to borrow money, contract debts and issue bonds, notes and debentures and to secure payment in performance of its obligations; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of the Corporation.
