Article III.

Purpose. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable purposes, specifically for the purposes of making contributions to qualifying tax exempt organizations described in section 501(c)(3) and exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law)(the "Code) and individuals.

Restrictions on Activities. The corporation is formed otherwise than for the pecuniary gain or profit of, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons; provided, that the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes, and distribute its assets on dissolution in accordance with these articles. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation described in section 501(c)(3) and exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the Code, or by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the directors shall wind up the affairs of the corporation as speedily as practicable and, after paying or adequately providing for the payment of all known obligations of the corporation, distribute the remainder of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation or to organizations organized and operated exclusively for the purposes of the corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) and exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code in such manner as the directors shall determine. Any such assets not so distributed shall be applied as may be directed by a court of competent jurisdiction in an action brought in accordance with Florida Revised Statutes, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Private Foundation Restrictions. If the corporation is a private foundation as defined in section 509 of the Code:

(a) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) which would give rise to any liability for any tax imposed by section 4941 of the Code.

(b) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) which would give rise to any liability for any tax imposed by section 4943 of the Code.

(c) The corporation shall not make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of section 4944, so as to give rise to any liability for any tax imposed by section 4944 of the Code.

(d) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) which would give rise to any liability for any tax imposed by section 4945 of the Code.

(e) The corporation shall, for the purposes specified in these articles, distribute at such time and in such manner, for each taxable year, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for any tax imposed by section 4942 of the Code.
