ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose of the corporation is as follows:

1. The specific and primary purposes of this corporation shall include, but are not limited to, fellowshipping of believers, worshipping the triune God, preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ, teaching the Bible, building the Christian community and spreading the love of Jesus Christ through world missions, empowering the under-privileged children to live a responsible life, operating of orphanages, educational centers, seminars and workshops, educating children and needy people to make healthy choices worldwide.
2. To do everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment, attainment, or furtherance of (and to do every other act or thing incidental to, pertinent to, growing out of, or connected with) the purposes, objects, or powers set forth in these Articles, whether alone or in association with others; to possess all the rights, powers, and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida; and, in general, to carry on any activities and to do any of the things herein set forth to the same extent as a natural person or partnership might or could do; provided that nothing herein set forth shall be construed as authorizing the corporation to possess any purpose, object, or power to do any act or thing forbidden by law to a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATIONS

The corporation is organized exclusively for religious and charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law and its Regulations).

1. No part of the income of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VII hereof.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements relating to), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
