as may be necessary or appropriate to fulfilling the purposes for which the Corporation is organized. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor shall it carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law (hereinafter referred to as the "Code"), or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, literary and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

The Corporation shall not carry on or engage in, otherwise than as an insubstantial part of its activities, activities which in themselves are not in furtherance of its exempt purposes.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV

The Corporation shall be governed by a board of directors (the "Board"). The Board shall be elected and serve in accordance with the terms of the by-laws of the Corporation.
