ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
In Compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

FILED
2009 AUG -3 P 2:03
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of the corporation shall be Empowered Angels, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II – PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS

The principal mailing address of the corporation shall be 2601 Lando Lane, Orlando, FL 32806. The primary street address will be determined upon securing the office space in Orlando, Florida.

ARTICLE III – EXEMPT ORGANIZATION

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV – PURPOSE

The purpose for which Empowered Angels, Inc. is organized is to provide cosmetology and other supports to government recognized organizations servicing and empowering women survivors of domestic violence and economically disadvantaged single mothers to gain the self-confidence and skills necessary to pursue career and educational opportunities resulting in financial stability.

ARTICLE V – MANNER OF ELECTION/APPOINTMENT

The manner in which the volunteer directors are appointed is based upon their specific capabilities and expertise in aiding the corporation in accomplishing its goals and objectives. The Board shall appoint a nominating committee, comprised of directors and members of the organization to prepare a proposed slate of nominees for the Board of Directors. Such slate will be announced to the Board of Directors and set forth in the notice of the annual meeting. The floor shall also be open at the time of the annual meeting for further nominations for Directors. The nominees receiving the greatest number of votes by the Board of Directors at the annual meeting shall be deemed to have been elected, notwithstanding the absence of a majority.

ARTICLE VI – CORPORATE ACTIVITIES

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VII – DISSOLUTION OF ASSETS

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII – INITIAL DIRECTORS AND/OR OFFICERS

In progress.
